

CBG Capital Limited (ACN 168 936 249) (Company) Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the Company's current compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's 3rd Edition Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations). The Recommendations are not mandatory.

	Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
1.	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its Board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.	Complies	The functions and responsibilities of the Board are set out in the Company's Board Policy which is shown on the Company's website http://cbgcapital.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2016/08/CBG_Capital_Corporate_Governance_Charter.pdf as part of the Corporate Governance Charter at the tab Corporate Governance.
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complies	The Company's Board Policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ sets out what the Board will consider when appointing a director, including the results of an appropriate background check, which the Company will undertake; and ➤ requires the Company to provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	The current directors have written agreements with the Company. Under the Company's Board Policy, when the Board considers the appointment of any new Director, the terms of appointment of a director must be recorded in a letter of appointment which takes into consideration the ASX Recommendations. This will form the basis of the written agreement entered into between the Company and a director. The Company does not have any senior executives.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the Board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.	Complies	The Board Policy states that the Company Secretary will be accountable directly to the Board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Complies	The Board has developed a strategy within its Continuous Disclosure Policy to ensure that shareholders are informed of all major developments affecting the Company's performance, activities and state of affairs. This includes having a website to facilitate communication with shareholders via electronic methods. In addition, the Company publishes regular shareholder communications, such as half yearly and annual reports and provides shareholders with an opportunity to access such reports and other releases electronically. Shareholders can communicate with the company via telephone or electronic methods.

	Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Complies	The Board encourages full participation of shareholders at the Company's annual general meetings and any general meetings to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategy. The external auditor is also invited to attend the annual general meeting of shareholders and will be available to answer any questions concerning the conduct, preparation and content of the auditor's report.
6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complies	The Company gives shareholders the option to receive and send communications electronically.
7.	Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Complies	The Board does not have and does not intend to establish such a committee because the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature. The Board deals with these matters and processes as a whole. Due to the size of the Company, the responsibility for the effectiveness of risk management and internal compliance and control rests with the Board. The risk management and reporting policy of the Company is set out in the Board Policy. Should the size of the Company change, the Board will consider establishing a separate risk committee.
7.2	The Board or a committee of the Board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	Complies	The Board reviews the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound. A review has taken place.
